FIRST SET OF INTERROGATORIES, REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS, AND REQUESTS FOR ADMISSION

Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26, 33, 34, and 36, Stephanie L. Gillespie by and through her attorneys, state the following responses.

INTERROGATORIES

1. Identify each business enterprise that has been engaged in the Portable Buildings Industry with which you played any role in planning its creation or formation and, with respect to each such enterprise, identify: (a) your specific role(s) relating to the creation/formation; (b) the dates in which you were involved in the planning; and (c) all other individuals and entities who were involved in planning the creation/formation.

RESPONSE:

I have not been involved in the planning or creation of any such business enterprise.

2. Other than Weather King, identify each business enterprise in the Portable Buildings Industry in which you have held an ownership interest and/or performed services (whether as an employee, an independent contractor, or in any other capacity) since January 1, 2021, and, with respect to each such enterprise, identify: (a) your specific relationship with the entity, including but not limited to all titles and positions you have held; (b) the nature and extent of any ownership interest in the enterprise; (c) the dates of your relationship; and (d) your role and duties for the entity.

RESPONSE:

Gillespie objects to this interrogatory as unduly broad, overly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case, nor relevant to any issue in the case. To collect all of this information would impose an unnecessary burden on Gillespie. Subject to and without waiving those objections, Gillespie states as follows: I became the Office Manager of American Barn on June 1, 2022. I hold no ownership interest.

3. Identify each communication you have had with any person or entity (other than confidential communications solely with your legal counsel, your spouse, or your accountant) between January 1, 2021, and through the day of the termination of your employment with Weather King (including but not limited to communications with lenders or potential lenders, investors or potential investors, business partners or potential business partners, Weather King employees, Weather King contractors, Weather King dealers, Weather King builders, Weather King drivers, other Weather King business partners, rental companies, and Weather King customers) relating to the creation/formation or potential creation/formation of, funding or potential funding of, and/or operation or potential operation of any business enterprise in the Portable Buildings Industry (other than Weather King) and, with respect to each such communication, identify: (a) the substance of the communication; (b) all parties to the communication; (c) the date of the communication; and (d) the mode of the communication (i.e., telephonic conversation, email, text message, etc.).

Subject to and without waiving those objections, Gillespie states as follows: The only person that I spoke with on these issues was Jesse Maupin, and I don't recall the dates or exact substance of the conversation.

4. Identify each communication you had between January 1, 2021, and through the day of the termination of your employment with Weather King with any person then-employed by Weather King relating to that person's potential departure from Weather King and/or your potential departure from Weather King and, with respect to each such communication: (a) describe in detail the substance of the communication; (b) identify all parties to the communication; (c) identify the date of the communication; and (d) identify the mode of the communication (i.e., telephonic conversation, email, text message, etc.).

of access or obtainment; (c) the circumstances in which you shared the property with anyone else, including but not limited to the identity of all such person and the date(s); and (d) the circumstances in which you otherwise made use of the property.
